

Yes thank you Madam Chair.

I am taking the floor to begin our closing remarks agenda item. And we wanted to begin with some closing remarks from our specially invited guest. A number have asked to take the floor briefly to give further information but mainly some views on having been through this two day period of statements and learning and understanding of minority matters with relation to education. Can I call first Mr. Bernard Gifford.