

Mr. Sujan Barua - World Barua Organization, Switzerland

Thank you miss Chairperson.

Thank you for this [position] and address for the Forum on Minority Issues [religion the contract and delivery the education curriculum is an obligation for Bangladesh]. [Those...education is religious and is an agreeable and fundamental human right critique to education is the deliverement of curriculum religion.] To minorities continue to adjust, integration, learning of minority groups in primary roles and regulations of Bangladesh. Uneducated, education regulation [not clear] compared with high drop-out rate with almost 20 per cent of drop-out attributed to linguistic averted correct and attention. One minority method benefits from deployment of of his nor [not clear] in them. In Bangladesh, minorities are faced with an education curriculum that it is learned the deviant history, knowledges and language. This methods of young people of grouping of knowledgy. The people of [...]

Allows the lesson of history to be learning and not as simply explained. If we education about their traditional history of right. Occupation and use in a world of developing resurces, traditional medicine and food going to be become more hungry.

School will include materials that will help these cases.

Student population have a right to exposition to all history. The language of minority. Need protection, and should form part of the primary school curriculum when that has

Thank you Madam.

Ined