

6th session of the Forum on Minority Issues

III. Protection of the existence of and prevention of violence against religious minorities

National Human Rights Commission of Korea

Thank you, madam chair.

I am (...) commissioner of international human rights commission of Korea. I would like to speak about two major issues concerning the rights of religious minorities and religious of freedom in South Korea. (...) issues of (...) In South Korea, on annual (...) of six hundred people (...) sentenced to imprisonment because (...) in the military or believes.

The national human rights of Korea (..) recommend adapting to alternative (...) program in 2005.

But the practice of concession of (..) it is not yet recognised. This is (...) human rights and the diversity of those of this (...) based on their religion.

Second, the origin of the issue of the freedom of religion. In Korea, some students of private school established by (...) religious foundation may campaign to participate in religious (...) or a training which is (...) to take International Human Rights commission continues to (...) complaint. Or will be discriminated for requiring or seeking employment (...) religion. The commission had the issue of recommendations to create such a practice with imitate success. I would like to thank a lot again the efforts from various perspectives and needed to address the challenges.

Thank you.