

UN Oral Statement @ Minority Forum, UN (25 & 26 November 2014)

By HARUM,

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to give a short speech in this honourable ceremony.

We are from Allied Nexus of Nusantara Communities or the acronym HARUM from Malaysia very passion to be in this forum which discuss in regard the minorities rights and protection.

We hereby agree that the liability and minorities safety especially the minority leaders who had been appointed by the peoples need to be protect by the world agencies authorized by UN in the aspect of international legal protection on themselves and their families.

We as HARUM in Southeast Asia had involved in humanitarian works at the conflict areas such as Rohingya in Myanmar, Pattani in Southern Thailand and Sulu Archipelago in Southern Philippines.

Therefore, indirectly we had an exposure on the minorities peoples and they often questioned us in regard the majority authorities government's action on their movement claiming their rights as human.

We all together, regardless of race and religion, live in the same world should suppose protect each other. The majority power should use and delegate their power in protecting the minorities.

The principles of every religion whereby the God give us guidelines in do well to other peoples and live with love passion altogether. With the main principles, we will live in the solidarity, mutual respect and harmony.

We HARUM, with full of pride and unity willing to share our passion and experience with all the forum members in regard the minorities protection.

Thank you.
