Dear friends,

My name is [?] from Youth Engineering Association of East Azerbaijan.

[?] is the role of governments in educating social media to reduce hate speech against minorities. It is said that we live in the age of digital governments and a world with [?], but we know that government is still the most important main unit and political [?], as well as international cooperation at time. When various hate spreading groups and violent groups are using facility tools, such as the Internet and social media, to spread the literature of violence against others, including minorities in addition to [?] a moral and group responsibility of each individual. It should be emphasized that responsibility and function governments in confronting and finding solutions in this regard is too far, that for such circumstances governments [?] and cooperation under the [?].

United Nations should play more prominent role in preventing the spread of violent literature against various groups, especially minorities. This issue is accompanied by serious planning and investing and it will have a very good effect in controlling and reducing the spread of hatred against individual, groups, especially minorities and different societies.

Thank you!
