

Speaker: Hello everyone. Hope you are doing well. This is [inaudible], you can call me [inaudible]. I belong to a [inaudible] minority from Dhaka in Bangladesh. [inaudible] and then I completed a BS honors and masters in political science. I got the opportunity to work in many national and international organizations. I have also got to attend many countries. As I belong to this [inaudible], I want to do something for our community. The [inaudible] speaking people, we are socially and economically privileged before 1971, but after '71, when East Pakistan and West Pakistan then they became victims of political [inaudible]. [inaudible] they are suffering a lot. The Center for the Advancement of Humanity is working with them since 2020. During the Covid-19 situations. We have tried to distribute food. We have given [inaudible] human rights etc. [inaudible] aim to do more things about our [inaudible] community. Thank you everyone.