Let's review a story together. Many of you have children, for whom you would do anything for their comfort and peace. Your dear child has a special disease or needs special medicine. No pharmacy has the medicine, because the country is under sanctions. Sanctions on medications under which, first of all, the sick child and his parents suffer [inaudible]. They claim that Iran is not subject to medical sanctions. There is enough money. The manufacturing companies are ready to deliver medicine to Iran, but financial sanctions do not allow the transaction. My country has been under strict sanctions for many years now. The United States and its allies have sanctioned Iran through various [inaudible] human rights. All these years are not just a number, they are a lifetime. The scientific, political, international and domestic contributions of women are related to this recent era. According to the statistics, the people of Iran [inaudible] with all the sanctions and [inaudible]. For the women and men of my country, for my identity, for the children who are dying every moment because of medical sanctions, for the Islamic Iran to the end of life. Thank you
